

Deborah Pate - Policy Officer

I think the way members can influence the policy-making process is rather opaque, and in this role, I should like to make sure we use such influence as we have to the full.